Welcome to Stockade Round-Up 2022

Welcome to 44th Annual Stockade Round-Up 2022. We are proud to be 'Going the Distance' by providing a valuable opportunity for cattle producers to showcase their best livestock to potential customers in the best facilities in Western Canada.

We will be hosting the Saskatchewan Angus Gold show once again and continue to work with the Saskatchewan Angus Association to provide a quality Gold Show for the Angus industry. In 2021, our DLMS viewership grew to several thousand and spanned to ten different countries. We are pleased to continue to broadcast our shows via DLMS this year.

We will also be continuing with the multi breed stalling and tie-out bedding service for our exhibitors. A great addition this year is the AOB class to expand our show to breeders who want to showcase their animals even if we do not receive sufficient entries to host an independent breed show. We are excited to have our three jackpot shows each evening starting with Princess of the Prairies on Tuesday, November 1, followed by Stockade Lady on Wednesday, November 2 and then King of the Ring on Thursday, November 3.

This year the Lloyd Ex Junior Show has been moved to Wednesday, November 2. The Prospect Steer & Heifer Show will run on Thursday, November 3 and the Saskatchewan Junior Gold Angus Show will be featured on Saturday, November 5.

We will be continuing with our online entry system, please visit www.lloydex.com to enter.

Stockade Round-Up would not be possible without great sponsors and community support. Thank you to the sponsors of this year's show. We greatly appreciate your support of the livestock industry and our Exhibition Association. Our committee was extremely happy with the outcome of our 2021 show as COVID-19 continued to present many challenges for the agriculture industry and our everyday lives.

We would like to thank all the exhibitors who came last year and supported Stockade Round-Up 2021. We are committed to providing you with a safe environment to exhibit your cattle while being able to network and build connections over the five-day event. The committee strives to provide a relaxed atmosphere and friendly hospitality, which makes this show an ideal venue for producers to evaluate the market and show potential of their cattle.

We are looking forward to the 44th edition of Paradise Hill Ranch & Western Wear Stockade Round-Up 2022 and seeing the top-quality livestock that producers have to offer.

~Gord King, Stockade Round-Up Chairman
