Attention: Exhibitors

Consumption of Alcohol

There is an ongoing issue that has been brought to our attention. The issue is consumption of alcohol by minors in the barn area and at our socials. This issue has become increasingly obvious over the past few years. Even though we I.D. the younger people, there seems to be a number of false I.D's showing up and or some of the people of age are obtaining the alcohol for the minors.

All of our facilities are licensed under the Association's name. If minors are consuming alcohol in the barn area or at our socials, this infraction could have a significant effect on our Association's liquor license.

The solution that the committee has implemented is that any person appearing to be 25 and under must provide proper government picture I. D. to purchase or obtain alcohol. If we see minors consuming alcohol, or displaying the effects of consumption of alcohol, we have been directed by the Committee to contact the RCMP. In addition, the RCMP have indicated that they want to be more visible at our events. Be advised that you may see RCMP members walking through the facilities/barns at any given time, at their discretion.

The Association did not make the laws for legal drinking age, and we are obligated to protect ourselves the best we can in this situation.

We trust that the exhibitors and parents will take this very seriously, as we will have little choice but to act to enforce the situation.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, it is understood that each entrant by the act of entry or exhibiting waives all claims against the Lloydminster Agricultural Exhibition Association Ltd., and/or any of the members, officers or agents thereof for any injury, loss or damage which he, his employees, helpers and/or property may sustain in any way arising out of the operations or activities of the said Company, by any of his helpers or employees or their executors, administrators or assigns, and that any helpers or assistant introduced to or engaged by the entrant through the said Company or through its members, officers or agent shall be at the sole risk and responsibility of such entrant.

Exhibitors of animals are liable to occasional accidents, injury or damage to persons coming into contact with them, and therefore shall guard their exhibitors and protect the public from coming in contact herewith, and every such exhibitor shall indemnify the Lloydminster Agricultural Exhibition Association Ltd. from and against all claims and demands, costs, charges and expenses which it may incur, suffer or be put to, by reason of an accident or of any such exhibit not being properly guarded or the public not being protected there from. The Directors and Committee Members, will be taking every precaution, cannot hold themselves responsible for any damage to or loss of exhibits.
